ANSWER

THE MINISTER FOR FISHERIES, ANIMAL HUSBANDRY AND DAIRYING
( SHRI PARSHOTTAM RUPALA )

(a) to (c): Yes Sir. The major diseases observed in cattle during the last three years as well as the current year including in the States of Odisha and Tamil Nadu are Foot and Mouth Disease (FMD), Brucellosis and Lumpy Skin Disease (LSD). While FMD and LSD are viral in nature, Brucellosis is bacterial. However, there are other factors for e.g. issues relating to bio-security, animal movement and animal hygiene, which makes the animals susceptible to diseases. Department of Animal Husbandry and Dairying, Government of India implements the Livestock Health and Disease Control Programme (LHDCP) in all States /UTs, with the aim of reducing risk to animal health, by prophylactic vaccination against animal diseases.

(d): No Sir. Animal Husbandry is a State subject and at present there is no central scheme which reimburses farmers for expenses incurred by the latter in the course of caring for their ailing cattle.

(e): The number of cattle vaccinated under the on-going vaccination against LSD and those vaccinated under national vaccination programme (against FMD and Brucellosis) is attached at Annexure 1.
