NOTICE

Subject: Amendment of the Cattle Trespass Act, 1871-regarding

As all may be aware that the Cattle-Trespass Act, 1871 was enacted by the Imperial Legislative Council to control animals like cattle, buffaloes, sheep, lambs, goats, horses, mares, ponies, colts, fillies, mules, asses, pigs, camels, elephants, rams, ewes, geldings which were found to be causing great damage to crops, plantation, pleasure-grounds, roads, canals, drainage-works, embankments and the like by straying therein. The Act was enacted before the commencement of the Constitution of India.

2. However, after the commencement of the Constitution, the subject “Pounds and the prevention of Cattle Trespass” has been included in List II - State List as entry 16. After independence, States sought to enact their own laws tailored to local conditions (for example, the Karnataka Cattle Trespass Act, 1966 repealed the 1871 Act for its territory). More than 20 States has made either amendment in the Act or mentioned in their respective Panchayat and Municipal Act as per their local conditions e.g., the Cattle Trespass (Punjab Amendment) Act, 1952 modified definitions (e.g., excluding bulls let loose for stud purposes) and extended administrative powers.
3. Keeping in view of ease of doing business and living, the Central Government has considered appropriate to amend the Cattle Trespass Act, 1871 and decriminalise the Sections 24,25,26 and Section 27. Accordingly, the draft Cattle Trespass (Amendment) Bill, 2025 has been prepared and Annexed.
4. In view of the foregoing, the comments with regard to the amendment of the said Act may be sent to Dr. Muthukumarasamy B., Joint Secretary to the Government of India, Ministry of Fisheries, Animal Husbandry and Dairying, Department of Animal Husbandry and Dairying, Krishi Bhawan, Room No-190A, Dr. Rajendra Prasad Road, New Delhi-110001 or through email at js-nlm@dahd.nic.in latest by 3rd February, 2026.
