Additional terms and conditions for engagement of consultants

Consultancy terms and conditions

1 Legal Status: The Individual Consultant shall have the legal status of an independent Consultant vis-à-vis DAHD and shall not be regarded, for any purposes, as being either a "staff" of DAHD, or an "official" of DAHD. Accordingly, nothing within or relating to the Consultancy Contract shall establish the relationship of employer and employee, or of principal and agent, between DAHD and the Individual Consultant.

2 Standards of Conduct:

2.1 The Individual Consultants shall neither seek nor accept instructions from any authority external to DAHD in connection with the performance of their obligations under the Consultancy Contract. The Individual Consultants shall not take any action during their engagement in respect of the performance of the Contract or otherwise related to their obligations under the Contract that may adversely affect the interests of DAHD. The Individual Consultants shall perform their obligations under the Consultancy Contract with the fullest regard to the interests of DAHD. The Individual Consultants are enjoined not to offer any direct or indirect benefit arising from or related to performance of the Contract or the award thereof the Consultancy engagement to any representative, official, employee or other agent of DAHD. The Individual Consultants shall comply with all laws, ordinances, rules and regulations bearing upon the performance of their obligations under the Consultancy Contract. In the performance of the Consultancy Contract, the Individual Consultant shall comply with the Standards of Conduct. Failure to comply with the same is grounds for termination of the Consultancy Contract governing the Consultancy.

2.2 Prohibition of Sexual Exploitation and Abuse:

During the performance of the Consultancy Contract, the Individual Consultants shall comply with the "Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013" and any amendment in the law made consequently read with any rules or regulations issued in this regard by Government of India. Violation of the said provisions will constitute a breach of the terms of the Consultancy Contract and will attract penal provisions, including the termination of the contract. In addition, nothing herein shall limit the right of DAHD to refer any alleged breach of the foregoing standards of conduct to the relevant statutory authorities for appropriate legal action.

3 Title Rights, Copyrights, Patents and Other Proprietary Rights:

3.1 Title to any equipment and supplies that may be furnished by DAHD to the Individual Consultants for the performance of any obligations under the Consultancy Contract shall rest with DAHD, and any such equipment shall be returned to DAHD at the conclusion of the Consultancy Contract or when no longer needed by such Individual Consultant. Such equipment, when returned to DAHD, shall be in the same condition as when delivered to the Individual Consultant, subject to normal wear and tear, and the Individual Consultant shall be liable to compensate DAHD for any damage or degradation of the equipment that is beyond normal wear and tear.

3.2 DAHD shall be entitled to all intellectual property and other proprietary rights, including, but not limited to, patents, copyrights and trademarks, with regard to products, processes, inventions, ideas, know-how or documents and other materials which the Individual Consultant has developed for DAHD under the Consultancy Contract and which bear a direct relation to or are produced or prepared or collected in consequence of, or during the course of, the performance of the Consultancy Contract, and the Individual Consultant acknowledges and agrees that such products, documents and other materials constitute works made during the engagement for DAHD. Subject to the foregoing provisions, all maps, drawings, photographs, mosaics, plans, reports, estimates, recommendations, documents and all other data compiled by or received by the Individual Consultant under the Consultancy Contract or as result of such Consultancy Contract shall be the property of DAHD that shall be made available for use or inspection by DAHD at reasonable times and in reasonable places. It shall be treated as confidential and shall be delivered only to DAHD's authorized officials on completion of work under the Consultancy Contract.

4 Confidential Nature of Documents and Information: The Individual Consultant shall be subject to the provisions of the Indian Official Secrets Act, 1923. The Individual Consultants shall not, except with the previous sanction of DAHD or in the bona fide discharge of their duties, publish a book or a compilation of articles or participate in TV/Radio broadcast/ Social Media or contribute an article or write a letter in any newspapers or periodical either in their own name or anonymously or pseudonymously in the name of any other person, if such book, article, broadcast or letter relates to subject matter assigned to them by DAHD. The Individual Consultant is prohibited from sharing any material (as described in Para 3.3.2 above) that was created as part of the Consultancy or received during the engagement at the DAHD from external agencies or from within DAHD. In the event of premature termination or completing the Consultancy Contract, the Individual Consultant shall duly handover all related documents, communications, reports etc. to the reporting officer, while, the obligations of the provisions of The Official Secrets Act, 1923 shall remain effective for all intents.

5 Use of Name, Emblem or Official Seal of the DAHD: Individual Consultants shall not advertise or otherwise make public for purposes of commercial advantage that a contractual relationship exists with DAHD, nor shall the Individual Consultants, in any manner whatsoever, use the name, emblem or official seal of DAHD, or any abbreviation of the name of DAHD, in connection with any business or otherwise without the written permission of DAHD.

6 Insurance: The Individual Consultants shall be solely responsible for taking out and for maintaining adequate insurance required to meet any of their obligations under the Consultancy Contract, as well as for arranging, at their own expense, such as life, health and other forms of insurance as the Individual Consultant as they may consider appropriate to cover the period during which they are engaged.

7 Travel, Medical Clearance and Service incurred Death, Injury or Illness:

7.1 DAHD may require the Individual Consultant to submit a Statement of Good Health from a registered physician prior to commencement of work in any offices or premises of DAHD.

7.2 In the event of the death, injury or illness of any Individual Consultant which is attributable to the performance of engagement on behalf of DAHD under the terms of the Consultancy Contract while the Individual Consultant is traveling at the expense of DAHD or is performing any responsibilities under the Consultancy Contract in any offices or premises of DAHD or Government of India, the Individual Consultant or the Individual Consultant's dependents, as appropriate, shall not be entitled to any compensation.

8 Force Majeure and other Conditions:

8.1 Force majeure as used herein means any unforeseeable and irresistible act of nature, any act of war (whether declared or not), invasion, revolution, insurrection, or any other acts of a similar nature or force, provided that such acts arise from causes beyond the control and without the fault or negligence of any Individual Consultant.

8.2 The Individual Consultants acknowledge and agree that, with respect to any obligations under the Consultancy Contract that they must perform in or for any areas in which DAHD is engaged in, preparing to engage in, or disengaging from any peacekeeping, humanitarian or similar operations. Any delay or failure to perform such obligations arising from or relating to harsh conditions within such areas or to any incidents of civil unrest occurring in such areas shall not, in and of itself, constitute force majeure under the Consultancy Contract.

9 Termination: The DAHD can terminate the Consultancy Contract at any time without prior notice and without providing any reason for it. DAHD reserves the right to terminate the services of an Individual Consultant at any stage, in the event of a serious failure in the performance of the assigned task or in the case of a failure to observe the prescribed standards of conduct as set out in para 3.2 of these Guidelines. However, in the normal course, DAHD will provide one month's notice to the Individual Consultant. The Individual Consultant can also seek for termination of the Consultancy Contract upon giving one month's notice to the DAHD.

10 Audits and Investigations: Each invoice paid by DAHD shall be subject to a post-payment audit by auditors, whether internal or external, of DAHD or by other authorized and qualified agents of DAHD at any time during the term of the Consultancy Contract and for a period of two (2) years following the expiration or premature termination of the Consultancy Contract. DAHD shall be entitled to a refund from the Individual Consultant for any amounts shown by such audits to have been paid by DAHD other than in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Consultancy Contract. The Individual Consultant acknowledges and agrees that, from time to time, DAHD may conduct investigations relating to any aspect of the Consultancy Contract or the award thereof, the obligations performed under the Consultancy Contract, and the operations of the Individual Consultant generally relating to performance of the Consultancy Contract. The right of DAHD to conduct an investigation and the Individual Consultant's obligation to comply with such an investigation shall not lapse upon expiration or premature termination of the Consultancy Contract. The Individual Consultant shall provide full and timely cooperation with such inspections, post-payment audits or investigations. Such cooperation shall include, but shall not be limited to, the Individual Consultant's obligation to make available such personal and any relevant documentation for such purposes at reasonable times and on reasonable conditions and to grant to DAHD access to the Individual Consultant's premises at reasonable times and on reasonable conditions in connection with such access to the Individual Consultant's personal and relevant documentation.

11 Settlement of Disputes: DAHD and the Individual Consultant shall use their best efforts to amicably settle any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of the Consultancy Contract or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof. Work related grievances, if any, should be processed as per the redressal mechanism established at DAHD.

12 Governing Law: The Consultancy shall be governed by the laws of India and is subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts at Delhi.

13 Conflict of Interest: The Individual Consultants shall be expected to follow all the rules and regulations of the Government of India which are in force. They will be expected to display utmost honesty, secrecy of office and sincerity while discharging their duties. In case the services of any Individual Consultant are not found satisfactory or found in conflict with the interests of the DAHD/Government of India, his/her engagement will be liable for discontinuation without assigning any reason
